

Location Map

Directions to hospital

St Joseph's Hospital via Road :

St Josephs Hospital is just off Junction 26 of the M4 Motorway. After leaving the motorway head North on the Malpas Road for 2 miles. Before a petrol station turn right onto Almond Drive. Once on a Almond Drive follow the road for 300 meters before turning left, just after the school, onto Harding Avenue. St Joseph's is now on your right.

St Joseph's Hospital via Rail

Newport (South Wales) Central Railway station offers a high-speed rail link between Newport, Swansea, Cardiff and London. Newport Station is just over an hour away from London Paddington, and one hour thirty minutes away from Swansea. The rail station is in the centre of Newport, your transfer to St Joseph's can be via public bus or taxi. A reputable taxi company operates a rank outside the station.

St Joseph's Hospital via Bus

St Joseph's is on the Malpas bus route, operated by Newport Transport, there are regular buses to and from Malpas with a bus stop a short stroll away from the hospital. Departures and timetable information is available from Newport Central Bus Station.

St Joseph's Hospital via Air

St Joseph's Hospital is 45 minutes away from Cardiff International Airport via coach or car. A connection from London Heathrow via the Heathrow Express, which takes you to London Paddington, then London to Newport high-speed rail link can take less than 2hours and 30minutes in total.

Local area map

